A Mothers Day Poem

My Mother kept a garden,
A garden of the heart.
She planted all the good things
That gave my life its start.
She turned me to the sunshine
And encouraged me to dream.
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.
And when the winds and rain came,
She protected me enough.
But not too much because she knew
I'd need to stand up strong and tough.
Her constant good example
Always taught me right from wrong.
Markers for my pathway
That will last a lifetime long.
I am my Mother's garden.
I am her legacy.
And I hope today she feels the love
Reflected back from me.

Piano: Sheila Harkess

All helpers and supporters very welcome

Schubert & The Romantics Concert

A big thank you to the team - Pat, Sheila, Helen, Dot, Penny, Pam, Derek and Anne who helped to make this an amazing and enjoyable concert. Thanks also to Peter for his strong support. The concert was a great success and the Festival Singers are keen to come back again. Both the choir and audience appreciated the delicious refreshments following the concert giving them a chance to mingle and relax.

The venue showed off the church acoustics and the spectacular Schubert Impromptus performed by Ingrid demonstrated what a wonderful asset we have in our beautiful Weinbach piano.

Thank you!
