Want to help buy an Action Bible for Te Awhi Rito children?

These bibles - see a copy on table at Otaki church - use graphics to tell the Bible story. They're very readable for children.

16 of these have been purchased for the Te Awhi Rito families at the cost of $40 each by the Anglican Church.

They are asking that if members of the churches that support Te Awhi Rito want to contribute to the cost, they would welcome that.

Any contribution can be placed in an envelope for the offering labelled for such and will be forwarded to the church. Alternatively, a bank account will be supplied next week.

Thank you

Margie

Village Harmony Multi Cultural Choir

Village Harmony is a not-for-profit educational organisation dedicated to the study, performance and celebration of diverse styles of traditional choral music. The choir is made up of people from all over the world who come together for a week long camp where they will learn and perform a wide range of music. Founded in 1989 Village Harmony sponsors a wide range of activities including:

- ◆ Multi-generational community choirs in different parts of the US
- ◆ Summer camp programmes for teenagers and adults in the US and overseas
- ◆ Online courses and workshops

They will be coming to New Zealand for the first time in January 2025 and will spend a week in Featherston learning music from all over the world including music unique to New Zealand. They will be giving a performance at the Waikanae Presbyterian Church, Ngaio Road, Waikanae on Wednesday 22 January 2025 at 7.00 pm. There will be supper following the concert to give the audience an opportunity to speak with the choir members and learn more about Village Harmony, its goals and aims.

Tutors include:

- ◆ Matlakala Bopape from South Africa
- ◆ Patty Cuyler from the US (Director and co-founder of Village Harmony)
- ◆ Lala Simpson (NZ/Madagascar), and
- ◆ Local Maori teachers

The choir arrive in the afternoon of Tuesday 21 January 2025 and will gather in the church hall before travelling to Raumati to meet and have dinner with local choirs. We have been asked to find people willing to billet some of the choir members. This will involve breakfast on 22 and 23 January and possible transport to the church for rehearsal. Lunch and dinner on both 21 and 22 January is not required.

If you would like to offer a bed for two nights or want more information, please let me know.
